MISSION STATEMENT

We, the family of Most Holy Redeemer Parish, commit ourselves to enriching our relationship with God by following the teachings of Jesus Christ. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we continue to build the Kingdom of God in our midst. Our vision is to foster the faith of all through prayer, service, education, and ministry.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Bishop John Manz, one of our retired auxiliary bishops in the Archdiocese, recently passed away. I attended his wake earlier this past week at Holy Name Cathedral. After I went past his casket and said some prayers, I spoke for a few minutes with some members of his family. They had all grown up in the Chicago area but had moved away.

Bishop Manz spent his life as a priest and bishop ministering to the Hispanic community. We talked about some of the parishes that he had served in. Several of them were closed. Others had united with another parish. They mentioned that they had been reading about all the parish closings and unifications that had taken place as part of Renew My Church. One of them said that people can spend a lifetime in a particular parish, and it can be very difficult to break the bonds they have. Another pointed out that a lot of parishes in Chicago are, or were, tied together with a particular ethnic group or culture. That often added to the difficulty parishes experienced in trying to unite and work together. While uniting may have made perfect sense on paper, the lived reality was often very different.

One of Bishop Manz's relatives said, "I grew up learning 'one, holy, Catholic, and apostolic.' That 'one' part of it seems pretty far off." "Well," I replied, "we are still a work in progress." We laughed a little, but we did realize that a work in progress is exactly what we are, both as a Church and as individual followers of Christ.

Jesus often reminds us that we are a work in progress, that we are not finished products and never will be. He always calls us to, "do one more thing," as he told the rich young man. He will always call us to a deeper understanding of the commandments and a deeper sense of holiness as He does in the Sermon on the Mount. He calls us to forgive seventy-seven times and beyond.

We are familiar with that idea of being works in progress in many areas of our lives. Maybe we are works in progress where health and fitness are concerned. We constantly make efforts to improve our health or our level of fitness. Maybe we are works in progress at our jobs, whether we are climbing the corporate ladder or just trying to become better at what we do. I guess the key phrase here is "in progress." We make efforts to progress and move forward. We make efforts to become better at something.

While we may consider ourselves to be works in progress in many areas of our lives, do we ever apply that idea to our faith? Are we works in progress when it comes to following our Lord? Are we progressing in prayer? Are we progressing in our knowledge and understanding of our faith? Is our faith in Jesus becoming a more evident and visible part of our lives? Do we find our faith becoming increasingly central to our lives and making a difference in the way we live, a difference that draws others to Christ? Sadly, many people stop being works in progress where their faith is concerned when they take their last religion class in school. They never try to learn any more about their faith. It becomes a less important part of their lives. They stop making progress.

When it comes to our faith, we are all works in progress. There is always more we can learn and more we can do. In a few weeks, another year of parish activities will begin. Let's keep in mind that we are works in progress where our faith is concerned. Let's try to think of some ways that we can make progress and move forward where our faith is concerned in the year ahead.

Catechists Make a Difference

The primary teachers of faith are parents. So home is the place children first hear about God. And as our children grow, we find that an important facet of religious education and formation is for them to be part of a community of faith with their peers. This enables them to explore their faith, ask their questions, and internalize the spiritual truths of faith in a safe place. The success of any education/formation program is, in part, due to the generosity and dedication of volunteers. Thank you to our catechists who are returning from last year. They will continue to share their faith and love for Jesus while teaching the youth of our parish as they grow in their own faith.

Many times we ask ourselves, “What can I do to help change the world?” Here is an opportunity to answer that question AND help our children to know and love the Lord. You do not need to be a certified teacher. All you need is to share your love of God and have a willingness to serve others. We will offer New Catechist Training/Formation during the month of August.

If the Lord is calling you to be part of this ministry, please call Margie at 708-346-8185 x226 or email dre@mostholyredeemer.org.

We need catechists at all Grade levels, 1-8.

We also are looking for:

- a few parents to take pictures of our students in their classrooms and/or at special gatherings
- an additional Office Assistant on Monday class nights

SMALL EFFORT, BIG DIFFERENCE

Just a small effort on your part can make a big difference for our parish. When you name Most Holy Redeemer Parish as the Payable on Death (POD) or Transfer on Death (TOD) beneficiary of your investment, checking or savings account, you help to strengthen the Church. A gift like this won't affect your lifestyle and it will make a tremendous impact on the future of our faith community.

Please contact your financial advisor or banker to facilitate this process. You can also reach out to the Archdiocese of Chicago's Planned Giving Team at 312.534.7959 or plannedgiving@archchicago.org for any additional questions.

Understanding Alternative Treatments

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 2023
Starts at 11:30 AM
Tickets $25 per person

Conventional medicine may not have all the answers or solutions for every medical condition. Exploring alternative treatments can help fill in these gaps, offering options for individuals who may not respond well to or benefit from standard treatments. Some people may also prefer alternative treatments based on a desire for a more holistic approach, cultural or religious beliefs.

Pathlights' expert panel will discuss alternative treatments for ailments including, but not limited to, chronic pain, anxiety, depression, weight loss, and sleeping problems. Treatment topics include cannabinoids, stem cell therapy, hypnotherapy, acupuncture, and transcranial magnetic stimulation.
