A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

When I was growing up, Labor Day meant that summer vacation was over, and school would be starting in another day or two. With nearly all schools now beginning their new academic year before Labor Day, the holiday has lost a lot of its "back-to-school" significance. It still marks the end of summer in some ways. The days are getting noticeably shorter and weekend trips to the summer home are ending for the year.

While Labor Day has lost its "back-to-school" significance, it still retains its true significance. Labor Day in the United States started in the late 1800s. It celebrated the many contributions American workers had made to America's prosperity, strength, and well-being. It also celebrated the labor movement, which sought the formation of unions, and better working conditions and shorter hours.

This is still a day to honor all workers and the work they do. Catholic social teaching has always believed that the work we do is a sharing in God's work of creation. God did not leave us with a finished product when He rested on the 7th day. The work we do helps to continue God's work of creation. This gives all work, even the most menial tasks, importance and dignity. It also brings importance and dignity to those who do that work. Workers should keep this in mind about the work they do and strive to do their jobs honestly and to the best of their ability. Employers should recognize this and pay their employees justly and provide safe working conditions. Let's try to keep in mind too, that other people depend on the work we do and the products we produce. Doing our work honestly and to the best of our ability is a way of showing our love and care for our brothers and sisters across the country and around the world. Let's keep in mind the dignity and importance of all work, and the dignity and importance of all who do that work as we celebrate Labor Day.

As we celebrate Labor Day and the dignity and importance of all workers, it is a reminder that workers were not always treated with respect and dignity. One group that continues to be treated with a lack of respect and dignity today is unborn children. Saturday, September 9, is the National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children. Solemn prayer vigils will be held throughout the country at designated memorial sites. The prayer vigils will commemorate the more than 50 million unborn children who have lost their lives to legal abortion since 1973, and to remind our society of the humanity of the unborn child. Here in our community, the memorial service will take place at St. Mary Cemetery at 1:00 PM. There will be signs to direct you to the site of the prayer service. Please try to join us for this event to pray for respect for life.

On Sunday, September 10, we will hold our annual Mass in the Park. Mass will take place at Duffy Park at 11:00 AM. The Mass in the Park is an event that many people enjoy. Get your lawn chair ready and plan to join us. We have had to move the venue from the park to the church a couple of times recently because of rain. Hopefully, the weather will cooperate this year and we'll be outside at Duffy Park. Please mark it down on your calendar and plan on joining us.

We are hoping to bring back the Children's Liturgy of the Word this year for our youngest parishioners. We can't bring it back though unless we have volunteers to serve as leaders for this program. If you are interested, please contact me, or Mrs. Guadagno in the SOR office.

Fr. Jim Hyland
